

Key Handling Agreement

Walk, Wag, 'N More requires two copies of the key I would like them to use to enter my home; one for each owner. If only one key is provided, Walk, Wag, 'N More has my permission to make a copy of my key for backup purposes and I will be charged a $5 convenience fee. If both keys are provided at the meet and greet there will be no charge. If Walk, Wag, 'N More has to return to pick up the keys before service then there will be a $10 fee.

What door will the key open? _____

Walk, Wag, 'N More agrees to place an identifying code on my key. My key will not be marked with my name, address, or pet's names. When not in use, my key will be stored in a secure location by Walk, Wag, 'N More. During services, my key will be with Walk, Wag, 'N More at all times.

Key Returns

I understand that if I decide at any time I'd prefer to have my keys returned at the last visit of my service, I will leave a note of the date and time of the last scheduled visit, and instructions on how to secure my home while leaving the keys. I understand that Walk, Wag, 'N More will not be able to access my house again after they have left the keys, including in the case of emergencies or delays in my return. Key return at the last visit of service is free.

If I would like my keys returned to me after the service period has ended, Walk, Wag, 'N More will drop off my keys for a $10 fee.

By signing this contract, I agree to and understand the terms and conditions listed above.
